Mt. Davis High Point Announcement
Forbes State Forest is refurbishing the observation tower at the Mt. Davis High Point, which will be closed to visitors until the work is completed, probably through the month of November.
State Forest visitors will be able to access the parking lot at the High Point, surrounding trails, and the High Point itself throughout the construction process.
A portion of South Wolf Rock Road, adjacent to the High Point Area, will also be repaved, including the parking lot, the week of Aug. 7. This work should only impact the area with closures for two to three days. Info: 724-238-1200 (M-F, 8AM-4PM).

Historic House Tour 125 Broadway St.

Our Meyersdale Public Library is getting a head start on celebrating the upcoming 150th anniversary of Meyersdale Borough. Archivist Jennifer Hurl and Foy family historian Randall Frye will lead historical tours of the home built in 1869-'70 by John M. Olinger (grandson of 1776 original area settler John Olinger) and later owned by Colonel George Foy. Some of Col. Foy's paintings, and Olinger family photographs, will be on display.

This event is kindly hosted by current owners Vickie and Gene Brown, to benefit the library and its patrons, prior to the home changing hands. Tour times are set for August 16 at 2, 3, 6, and 7 PM. Additional times may be scheduled.

Telephone Jennifer between the hours of 10 AM and 5 PM Monday-Friday at 814.634.0512, extension 2, to reserve a tour time. (Please note Jennifer will be away from the library on Friday, August 4th.)

Freewill donations will be gratefully accepted.

(We thank Randall Frye for the accompanying photograph.)
