Thank you . . .

To everyone who helped to make the annual Death by Chocolate event a success, we extend thanks. To the Friends of the Library group who worked so hard, all the bakers who entered the contest, the judges, those who attended the event and who bid, those who baked for or purchased from the bake sale at the library, the auctioneer Jesse Maust, and to our hosts at Amity United Church of Christ for providing the space we needed for the huge crowd! It was fun!

Let's do it again next year!
